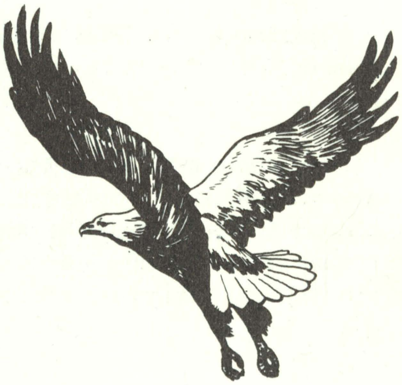
THE

EAGLE'S NEST

1955



LORD BALTIMORE SCHOOL

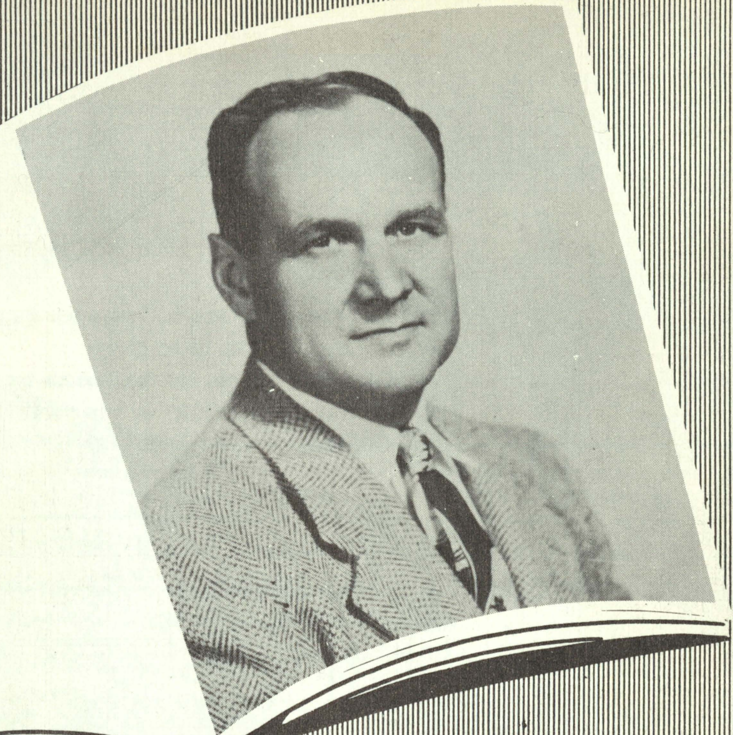
Board of School Trustees

Speaking for the board of trustees, I congratulate the members of the Class of 1955. They may well be proud of the completion of their course of study.

The efforts made by the board of trustees to provide for you the best possible educational opportunities are amply repaid when they see results as satisfactory as those presented by this class. We hope you will continue to work as diligently as you have worked in this institution, and that each succeeding year may find you farther on the road to success.

Harry H. Dukes, Jr.
President

Dedication



He has understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and enhanced our chance for success.

The time he has devoted to L. B. H. S. has brought development and great achievements which cannot be exceeded.

His determined efforts to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. Words can't express our appreciation for his various contributions; but to show how much we love, honor, and respect him, we dedicate the 1955 "Eagle's Nest" to our principal, Mr. Fred Graef.

"PRICELESS THE HERITAGE"

(A Tribute to Our Faculty)

"He who would teach," says the Sage,
Must expect little glory;
Forgotten except for the lessons he passes to youth,
Never shall OURS be the pardonless sin of forgetting
Our faculty who led us to shrines of Beauty and Truth.

What have you given us?
All that is well worth the giving:
Kindness, faith, knowledge,
Love of our fellowman.
Tirelessly breaking new trails for young feet to follow;
Priceless the heritage--
Measure its worth if you can.

Now, with your tasks well done,
Watching us from the last doorway
Where we the class of '55 pause for your blessing,
Ever we'll cherish your final word.

It comes! Your creed--a code a vision of service,
"Give of Yourself"
In echo, your words our hearts have heard.

ALMA MATER

Now we sing our Alma Mater
For the school we love so well
Baltimore, your memories linger
As your loyal students tell.

All the days we spent together
Make us love you more and more
Baltimore we love your classrooms
Where we pondered o'er and o'er.

Years may dim our recollection
But we'll ne'er forget thy name
Though your walls may fall and crumble
We will love thee just the same.

CHORUS:
Alma Mater, Alma Mater
This our song we sing to thee
Baltimore we hail your colors
Green and White shall always be.

You have made a good beginning toward your education, which will continue throughout your lives, in your work and in your recreation. We have merely helped you; until now, we hope, you will be able to continue your own development; to maintain yourself in the best possible health; to appreciate the meaning of your home and social relations; to learn something from all with which you come in contact; to be faithful and responsible citizens; to learn to live well and happily in a situation that admits of growth and advancement as soon as deserved; to realize the necessity of ethical behavior in the maintenance of the well being of yourselves and your fellowmen; to use your leisure in a manner that will be profitable both mentally and artistically for your own development and for the comfort and pleasure of your associates.

This sounds like a big order, I know, but all of these steps are indispensable to the beginning of real education which trains adequately for good citizenship. It is my earnest hope that you boys and girls who are graduating will become what we think you will be--Our very best citizens.

Seniors

To the Seniors of "1955"

You are now about to reach manhood and womanhood. Many of you do not know what you will become, nor do you realize your great possibilities and potentialities. You are the raw materials from which good citizens are made. It is you who hold the keys to tomorrow and, in your future, the hope of America and the world.

Teaching you has been a continuous process, beginning in early childhood. We have tried to teach you to be proud and self reliant, to work independently, to take pride in personal accomplishments, and to understand the relative value of things spiritual and material.

I sincerely hope that you will always bear in mind your responsibility to society, and that, in your every action, you will conduct yourself in a manner reflecting credit on that society. You will really begin to live when you first try to overcome your weaknesses; you will cease to live the moment you lose the burning desire for self improvement.

It is always difficult to say goodbye to friends, so I will simply wish you good luck as you set forth into your future.

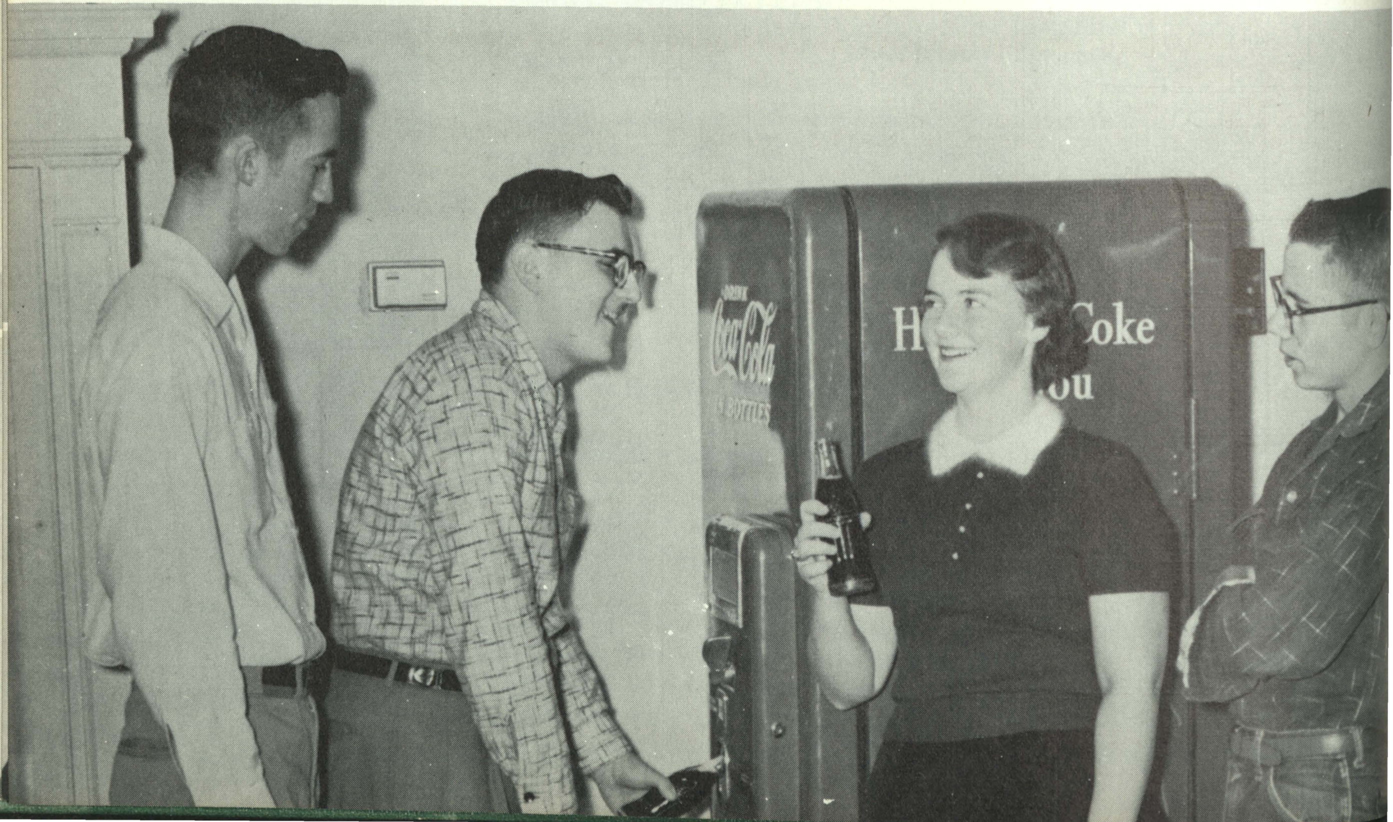
Class Officers



The Class History

In September, 1943, there were fifty-two little brats to enter the halls of Lord Baltimore School. Little did we realize what was ahead of us.

In our first six years of schooling we had associated with eighty-three students. During our full twelve years we associated with ninety-five students. You see, we lost and gained at the same time.

It was a great day in our life when we first started Junior High School. The teachers had a hard time trying to get us settled down. We were the noisiest class in the building. As there were fifty-two of us, we were divided into 7A and 7B. Our class advisors were Mrs. Gloria Evans and Mrs. Ruth Koenig. During that year we gained Billie Jean Derrickson and Rosalee Smith and lost Gerald Palmar, Floyd Rogers, Nelson Wooters, William Jearman, and Herbert Donohue.

In September, 1950, forty-two of us entered eighth grade. Our class advisor was Mrs. Gloria Evans. In this grade we lost Norman Rickards, Ernest Melson, Marrianne Nuthall, Barbara Nuneville, and Betty Marvel but gained Irene Cathall. We elected the following students as our class officers: President, Linda Quillen; Vice President, Alice Townsend; Secretary, Norma Lee Evans; and Treasurer, Gene Daisey.

Our first year in high school began in 1951 with thirty-five members in our class. This year we lost three members: June Mitchell, Coleta Townsend, and William Malnor.

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President, Jean Hickman; Vice President, Kenneth Tuschhoff; Secretary, Jane Hargadine; and Treasurer, Thomas Frey.

During this school year we decided to have four activities to enlarge our class treasury. They were a Thanksgiving Dance, a benefit movie, a Sock Hop, and a turkey supper which we sponsored half and half with our upperclassmen, the class of 1954.

At the beginning of our sophomore year we had thirty-two members from which we lost three - Rheba Megee, Charles Cannon, and Dolores Evans - and gained two members - Charles Hitchens and Shirley Lane.

Our officers this year were President, Raymond Rickards; Vice President, Joseph Burbage; Secretary, Joyce Vandergrift; and Treasurer, Thomas Frey.

We had a bake, a skating party, a benefit movie, a Thanksgiving Dance, a Spring Dance, and a supper to make money.

When we reached our junior year we had thirty-one members and a new class advisor, Mrs. Joines. At the end of the year we lost two members: Josephine McGee and Shirley Lane.

We elected the following class officers: President, Thomas Frey; Vice President; Curtis Harper; Secretary, Shirley Lane; and Treasurer, Kenneth Tuschhoff.

Our activities for this year were a Valentine Dance, two movies at the Clayton Theatre, a bake, and our main event - the Junior Prom.

At last we were in the last lap of the race! We were Seniors. We elected officers: President, Timothy Murray; Vice President, Thomas Frey; Secretary, Joyce Vandergrift; and Treasurer, Kenneth Tuschhoff.

Our greatest task this year was our "Annual." We sponsored a benefit movie in October and one in April. We also held the Christmas Dance with the music furnished by the Melody Makers under the direction of Richard Holt.

On May 26 we left for Washington, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. McCoy Joines and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greaf. We spent four days living in a hotel, touring our capital, and having fun together. After returning, we began preparing for Commencement.

Although we have waited twelve years for this day, we dread saying good-bye to our classmates, teachers and school. May each of us follow the ideals and standards Lord Baltimore has set for us ever realizing that to our community and nation we owe a contribution - Our Best.

To the Junior class the Seniors leave the punctured basketballs, lost golf balls, and broken bats with which we have had so many victories.

To the Sophomores we leave our many forbidden trips to the Snack Bar and the Shell Station. Hope you have as good luck as we have had.

To the Freshmen we leave the broken fire alarms, our cutting classes, and our ability to talk our way out of trouble.

To the cafeteria ladies we leave our appreciation for the delicious food and good service through the years.

To Mr. Graef the Class of '55 leaves their sincere thanks and appreciation for all that you have done to make our school days a success.

We thank the faculty for their patience and guidance which they have shown us.

To the custodians we leave a dust rag and broom to make these old halls bright and shiney after the class of '55 has gone.

To the school board we leave our sincere appreciation for the things they have done to make our school what it is today.

To Mrs. McCann we donate a bottle of merthilolate to replace the many bottles that we have used up and broken.

Alice Townsend wills her physical structure to Jeannette Quillen.

Joe Burbage wills his double talk and his ability to keep the teachers in an uproar to Gerald Townsend.

Norma Lee Evans wills her quiet manner to Bonnie Tingle.

Charles Hitchens leaves his freckles and red hair to Linwood Rickards.

Rosalee Smith wills her height to Oliver McCabe and her good marks to Johnny Johnson.

Gene Daisey leaves his desire to be a million dollar play boy to Paul Marvel. Hope you have better luck.

Jean Hickman wills her short hair to Rachel Holt.

Leroy Marvel leaves his ability to cut circles and run away from cops to Danny Wharton.

Tommy Frey leaves his "souped-up" hot rods to Billy Murray.

Jean Hickman leaves her ability to get good marks to Richard Holt.

Nancy Turner leaves her tall slender build to Janice Hickman and her dark hair to Nellie Franklin.

Billie Jean Derrickson wills her high soprano voice to Beatrice Way.

Shirley Collins leaves her short curly hair to Lollie Evans.

Mona Rickards leaves her acrobatic stunts to Joan Collins and her trueness to one boy to Connie Warrington.

Rancel Evans leaves his musical ability to Ronnie Stephens.

Norma Lee Evans leaves her many diets to Betty Jean Megee.

Jane Hargadine wills her blue eyes to Judy Willey and her ability to pinch pennies to Mearl Layton.

Joyce Vandegrift leaves her frequent talks at noon hour to Wanda West.

Linda Quillen leaves her reputation for being the first one to become engaged to Faye Wingate.

Wayne West leaves his steady romance to Rodney Justice and his new car to Jackie Stephens.

Kenneth Tuschoff leaves his dainty appetite to Rachel Holt.

Russell Shockley leaves his ability to sell tickets to teachers to Roger Hitchens.

Arneva Breasure leaves her cute giggles to Barbara Bradford.

Janet Hill wills her frequent trips to Rehoboth and Lewes to Katherine Melson.

Linwood Townsend leaves his blonde hair and glasses to Eddie Murray.

Timothy Murray leaves his height to George Rogers and his brains to Bruce Dolby.

Curtis Harper leaves his ability to give oral compositions to Patricia Willett.

Wayne Collins leaves his bottle of peroxide to Harold Palmatory.

Edith Megee wills her cheerful disposition to Lorraine West.

Irene Cathell leaves her cheerful disposition to Delores Megee.

Alice Townsend leaves her sprained fingers and bruises to Margorie Turner.

Joyce Vandergrift leaves her smile to whoever needs one.

Nancy Turner leaves her ability to cook to Jane Wilgus. Hope you have better luck.

Jane Hargadine leaves her hard to please disposition to Peggy Betts.

Advice to Juniors

As you pass through halls and stairways,
Walk in a stately way.
Do not push, or knock, or scuffle
We never acted that way.

When you enter into each classroom,
Make the teacher a dignified bow,
Be sure not to talk or to giggle
That is apt to start a big row.

Don't ever get ruffled or tearful
Be stately and calm as can be.
If a question you're asked you can't answer
Politely reply, "You tell me."

And when the bell rings at lunch time
Just stroll to your place in the line,
Which should always be first for the Seniors,
With Juniors and others behind.

Then, Class, when you go to assembly
Be quiet. You're not there to talk
Listen in silence to speeches,
When dismissed, do not run, just walk.

Now, some of you girls have sweet faces
Don't spoil them with powder and paint
You think it improves your appearance
But of fastness, it sure is a taint.

Don't flirt in the halls, that's kiddish
Be dignified. If you wish, make a date
But trying to love in a corner
Is something we surely do hate.

And when the bell rings for the closing
Go home. Don't just hang around
We Seniors have made it a practice
To leave promptly when the 3:30 bell sounds.

We'd advise you to frame these suggestions,
And hang them in place on the wall.
Read carefully, heed them, ye Juniors.
T'will make wonderful Seniors of all.

Prophecy

In the early morning of October 14, 1960, we left Ocean View to visit old classmates. Our first stop was the Bethany Beach Training Camp where we recognized two of our classmates, Mr. Kenneth Tuschoff and Mr. Raymond Rickards, struggling to support their wives. As we entered Rehoboth, we saw a red Ford driving up in front of a new construction, and it was then we recognized Mr. De Witt Wolfe, now a large contractor, having lunch brought to him by the former Shirley Collins, his wife. We turned off the main highway into the Henlopen acres where we noticed a large brick home. Being interested in this type, we stopped and rang the doorbell. The dignified lady who answered the door turned out to be Mrs. Ray Daisey, who informed us that her home was now being redecorated by the interior decorator, Miss Rosalee Smith. We did not tarry long here, but drove on toward Lewes. Here I noticed several dairy farms. The especially large one on the right we found to belong to Mr. Wayne West. As we drove past, we could see Bonnie just entering the farmhouse. Next we stopped at the Beebe hospital to have a look at the new research laboratory. Here we found Dr. Wayne Collins operating an Xray machine with the registered nurse, Mrs. Darold Adkins, the former Mona Rickards, acting as assistant. Leaving Beebe and driving on toward Milford, we realized our gas was very low and, therefore, pulled into the next service center where proprietor Leroy Marvel filled our car with gas while mechanic Charles Hitchens checked the oil. We congratulated them on their fine service and took off once more. Passing by the Dover Air Base we noticed a jet just leaving the runway. In the background waving goodbye to the pilot was his wife, Mrs. Robert Dorman, formerly Linda Quillen. Fatigue from riding persuaded us to take in a football game at the University of Delaware where we recognized two of our former classmates, Nancy Turner and Jane Hargadine strolling hand in hand across the campus grounds. The excitement brought on by the football game left us hungry and very tired. We stopped in for a snack at the near-by diner owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Tyre (Arneva Brasure.) Here we enjoyed a refreshing snack. As night fell, we began looking for a place to retire. A neon sign which read "Shockley's Hotel" drew our attention. It wasn't until after having a friendly conversation with the desk clerk, Irene Cathell, that we learned this hotel was owned by Russel Shockley.

The following morning we got up early in order to take a look in on Goldey Beacom. About halfway down the corridor we saw the familiar blonde, Jean Hickman, now engaged to Kenneth Turner, working her way through college. Before entering Brandywine, we noticed a huge race track with a farm house in the background. The man with the cigar in his mouth, leading a thoroughbred around the track, was none other than Gene Daisey. It looks as if his horse-racing tales in school did amount to something after all. It was Gene who drew our attention to the man on the tractor across the road. He explained to us that this farm, which consisted of 100 acres, was owned and managed by Curtis Harper. As we rode past Alexis I Dupont School in Wilmington, we caught a glimpse of Mr. Emory Vickers waiting out front for his wife, Edith, who had received her master's degree and was now teaching English. We were nearly past when we suddenly recognized another familiar figure coming down the steps. It seems as if the Hill girls surely do like becoming school secretaries. It was just getting dusky dark when we drove into Philadelphia and much to our surprise saw Tommy Frey drive into the Atlantic Refining Co. to put in his application. We followed him into the office and were astonished to see our old classmate, Linwood Townsend, seated behind a large desk making out Tommy's application. Because our time was running short, we left our car behind and took a plane to New York. It was night and the lights were beautiful as we came into New York City. High above everything else we saw the letters W.F.I.L.T.V. which attracted millions of tourists each year.

Having never seen a real television production, we took our seats in this large building. The program soon got under way and we felt proud to see the spotlight shining on our singing star, Mrs. Raymond Rickards, former Norma Lee Evans. Upon leaving the studio, we learned the cameras in this network had been designed and tested by Timothy Murray.

We were taken in next day by an art show. One painting entitled, "Pennies from Heaven," took our eye as we walked down the long corridor of this art gallery; especially when we noticed it had been painted by our classmate. Joseph Asher Burbage. Suddenly realizing that tomorrow was the big day for the 500 mile race at the Indianapolis Speedway, we hurried out of the gallery and on to the airport to catch the next plane out. Due to the bad weather, we arrived just in time to see the last lap. When the cloud of dust cleared, we could see that car # 12 was in the lead. We stood up in amazement to watch Rancel Evans, who motored on past home stretch, receive the gold trophy of 1960. Congratulating him, we took a plane back to Philadelphia, picked up our car, and returned to Ocean View. Here we were able to witness the new Burbage greenhouse, which had been completed while we had been away. Alice is carefully watering and caring for the flowers. Our journey completed, tired and weary, we made for home. What a class we have turned out to be!

May we ever forward march
And faithful, loyal be
To victorious green and white
The banners of Old L.B.

And So Goodbye

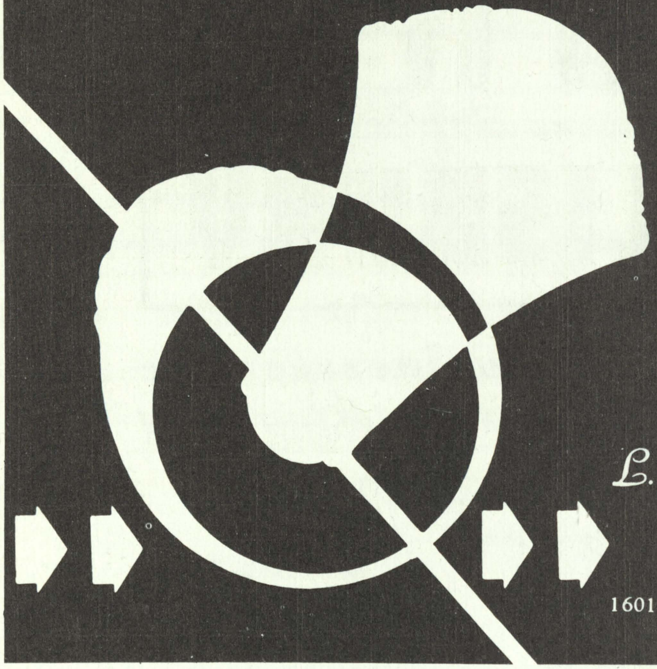
Take a high view of things



Some schools instinctively set their sights high, for them, Balfour Class Rings, Commencement Announcements, Club Pins, Medals and Trophies are custom made.

They are high in style, craftsmanship, and prestige.

They are high, also in the esteem of people who judge on merit.
